WBCNA Selected as the "2007 Non-Profit of the Year"

HUNTSVILLE, AL] - The Women's Business Center of North Alabama (WBCNA) was named the "2007 Non-Profit of the Year" at Thursday's Small Business Awards Celebration, an annual event hosted by the Huntsville/Madison County Chamber of Commerce.

Nineteen non-profits were contenders for this prestigious award including the American Cancer Society, American Red Cross of Madison/Marshall County, Boys & Girls Club of North Alabama, CASA, Downtown Rescue Mission, Girl Scouts of North Alabama, Heart of the Valley YMCA, Hospice Family Care, Huntsville Botanical Garden, Huntsville Museum of Art, Junior Achievement of Northern Alabama, Kids to Love, National Children's Advocacy Center, Optimist Club of Huntsville, The Land Trust of Huntsville/North Alabama, The Volunteer Center of Madison County, Therapy Partners, and United Way of Madison County. Finalists for this award were Hospice Family Care and The Land Trust of Huntsville/North Alabama.

"We are honored to be recognized for our hard work and dedication to small businesses in North Alabama," said Barbara Buice, WBCNA Board president. "This award would not be possible without the involvement and commitment of our many stakeholders---our clients, board of directors, volunteers, staff, and investors."

Each year, the Chamber recognizes locally-based small businesses and non-profits for their financial success, growth and community involvement.

Funded in part through a Cooperative Agreement with the U.S. Small Business Administration.
